Goodman, Nist, & Mohr. (2002). Building Vocabulary Skills. (3rd Edition). New Jersey: Townsend Press.

1 notebook binder (1/2-inch size) with loose-leaf notebook paper (all homework will be written with dark blue or black ink pens on loose-leaf notebook paper); highlighters; dark blue and/or black ink pens; pencils; 1 one-subject notebook (for the Learning Log); 1 regular-sized dictionary; and 1 thesaurus.

Course Description/Goal:

Reading 0070 (Developmental Reading I)

Three hours lecture, one-hour lab per week: This initial reading course is designed to help students develop basic skills needed to become successful readers. Emphasis is placed on the basic reading skills of main idea, context clues, and inference. The course is designed to provide the necessary foundation skills for successful reading and interpretation of college level material. Successful completion of this course will prepare the student for Developmental Reading II (READ0080).

.Course Objectives with SCANS:

Strengthen vocabulary by using context clues and structural analysis to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words (1A, 1E, 1F. 2).

Improve comprehension through learning to identify main ideas and major types of details (1A, 2).

Write summaries of reading passages (1A, 1B).

Practice basic study skills (2, 3, 4).

Distinguish between fact and opinion (1A, 2).

Make valid inferences (1A, 2).

Develop higher order thinking skills (F8, F9, F11, F12).

Organize ideas and communicates orally. (F6)

Use computer technology for a variety of purposes (C18).

Course Assignments and Grading Procedures:

Assignments/Tests will be based on the following:

Primary text: assignments and tests

Vocabulary text: exercises and tests

Computer/Plato Lab: attendance and progress

Oral presentations: two presentations

Instructor-specific assignments/projects

Points are earned for all assignments and tests. The final grade will be a percentage, calculated by dividing the total number of points earned by the total number of points possible.

Example: Total points earned - 720

Total points possible - 975

$720/975 = .74 = 74\%$

Final grade is 74% (C)

Tests	40%
Work	25%
Lab	5%
Attendance/Participation	20%
Oral Presentations	10%
Total	100%

Grading Scale: grades assigned to students in Developmental Reading courses are:

A = 90 - 100%

B = 80 - 89%

C = 70 - 79%

D = 60 - 69%

F = 0 - 59%

Conditions: No Test Make-ups and No Late Work!!!

Attendance: Students must be in regular and continuous attendance. In order to receive daily credit for attendance, students must have been in class a minimum of 90% of the period. Any student who is absent from class for more than 6 hours (6 class days) may be dropped from the class at the instructor’s discretion.

Instructor Expectations/Classroom & College Policies:

1. Arrive promptly to class
2. Be prepared for class – homework, materials
3. Turn off all cellular phones and pagers. (Do not leave on silent or vibrate mode.)
4. College policy: no visitors or children allowed in class
5. Misconduct: The STCC Student Handbook includes the following as types of misconduct for which students may be subject to disciplinary action:
 - scholastic dishonesty;
 - campus disruptive activities that interfere with instructional activities or the functions that support them;
 - demonstration of disrespect to an instructor.

Instructors may proceed with disciplinary action according to the handbook when student misconduct occurs in the classroom.

Technology:

Computer-based instruction will be provided using Plato (where applicable).

Developmental Studies Policy Statement:

1. Failure to remain in at least one Developmental Studies course for students who have not met the passing standard on an approved assessment instrument in reading, writing, and/or mathematics may result in the student's withdrawal from ALL college courses.
2. All developmental courses including the College Success course will be included in the Semester Grade Point Average (GPA) for all students at STCC.
3. Students in Developmental Studies will be limited to a maximum of 13 credit hours of course work per semester and 7 credit hours per summer session.
4. Students taking 12 or more credit hours per semester who have not met the passing standard on an approved assessment instrument will be required to take two or more developmental courses every semester if they are deficient in more than one academic skill (reading, writing, and mathematics).

ADA Students with Disabilities Statement: Reasonable accommodations may be made that allow disabled students to be successful at STCC. Accommodations may be provided for those students who submit the appropriate documentation by an outside/independent professional evaluator or agency. Contact an STCC ADA/DSS Counselor in the Annex (Pecan) or call (956) 688-2006. Students may volunteer to inform the instructor about their disabilities and associated classroom limitations, if applicable.

Financial Aid Warning:

Withdrawal From the College

Students who receive financial aid and withdraw from the College during the semester may owe large amounts of money to the U.S. Department of Education and South Texas Community College. These debts will need to be satisfied before students will be allowed to continue their education. Before making a decision to withdraw from courses students MUST go the Office of Financial Aid to determine the financial consequences of withdrawing from school.
