Sexual Misconduct is a violation of Title IX and other laws.

WHAT TO DO:
1. The victim’s health and safety are the primary concern. If there is any risk to anyone’s health or safety, call Campus Police at (956) 872-4444 or call 911.
2. Seek medical services if necessary.
3. LISTEN. Then offer support and encourage the victim to seek help as soon as possible.
4. Follow the “What to Say” section on the back of this card.
5. Tear this card at the perforation. Keep this half for your information and provide the other half to the person who has experienced the sexual misconduct.

If Someone Tells You They Have Experienced Sexual Misconduct

WHO NEEDS TO REPORT?
Anyone can report an incident they witness.

All College Faculty and Staff employees, other than Licensed Professional Counselors and Ombuds, are REQUIRED to report sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator or the Deputy Title IX Coordinators. (Counselors and Ombuds must still report other data as required by law.)

If you have any questions and/or concerns, contact the Title IX Coordinator at (956) 872-3558.

WHY DO I NEED TO REPORT?
- To stop the problem from reoccurring
- To ensure access to resources
- To identify and address any trends
- To keep our community safe

REPORTING OPTIONS:
- Title IX Coordinator
  - Mary Elizondo (956)872-3558
- Title IX Deputy Coordinators
  - Laura Requena (956)872-3646
  - Celinda Solinas (956)872-6319
- Title IX Liaisons
  - Santa Pena (956)872-2140
  - Monica Perez (956) 872-3522

WHAT TO SAY:
- There are many resources available to help you, both at the College and in the community. Some resources are strictly confidential.
- I am required to connect you to the Title IX Coordinator or to a Deputy Title IX Coordinator who will meet with you to help direct you to supportive resources and explain your options if you want the College to take further action.
- The Title IX Coordinator or the Deputy Title IX Coordinator will keep your information private and will only share it with those who “need to know.” You have the right to choose to whom you will speak, what resources you will use, what you will say, and when you will say it.
- The College is obligated to provide you support services and some are confidential.

Notice of Non-Discrimination
South Texas College is an equal education and equal employment opportunity/affirmative action employer. South Texas does not discriminate or tolerate discrimination against any employee, applicant for employment, student, or applicant for admission on the basis of race, color, national origin, ethnicity, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, parental status, disabilities, genetic information, veteran status, or any other protected category under applicable local, state, or federal law. Conduct that excludes participation, denies benefits or subjects others to discrimination is prohibited. The College complies with all applicable policies and state and federal legislation in order to combat discrimination.

Retaliation against any member of the South Texas College community who reports an incident of sexual misconduct is strictly prohibited. South Texas College acts promptly and appropriately to prevent and stop any acts of retaliation.
