Methods

The method to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants was based on regulations in Public Law 117-2, signed into law on March 11, 2021. Funding for the ARP is to continue support to institutions of higher education to serve students and ensure learning continues during the COVID-19 pandemic. The ARP Guidance was published by the US Department of Education, Office of Postsecondary Education on May 11, 2021 online at <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ope/arp.html>. The Frequently Asked Questions document posted by the Office of Postsecondary Education states in Answer #7 that “states any student that is or was enrolled (as defined in 34 CFR § 600.2)” on or after March 13, 2020, the date of declaration of the national emergency due to the coronavirus (85 FR 15337). In Answer #8 it states that all students including “citizens, permanent residents, refugees, asylum seekers, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrival (DACA) recipients, other DREAMers, and similar undocumented students.) Answer #8 also states that “International students may also receive HEERF.”

The method to determine how much each student would receive considered the allocation formula grant funds received by South Texas College for Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students under the American Rescue Plan (ARP) Act, plans to use no less than fifty percent of the funds received to provide emergency financial aid grants to students for expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus (including eligible expenses under a students costs of attendance such as food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, and child care), and an estimated number of students who would meet the eligibility guidelines provided by the US Department of Education: Office of Postsecondary Education. South Texas College determined the amount of each individual emergency financial aid grant consistent with all applicable laws including non-discrimination laws, has collected information from student applicants, and determined that the initial distribution amount for eligible Spring 2021 students would be $1,700.
