

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, Border safety is a matter of vital importance, and 2 South Texas has a growing need for highly trained law enforcement
3 professionals to ensure the security of the citizens of the Lone 4 Star State; and

5 WHEREAS, Studies derived from Texas Workforce Commission
6 data indicate that the need for law enforcement personnel such as 7 police and sheriff's officers, detectives, and criminal 8 investigators will see a 21 percent increase between 2012 and 2021;
9 accordingly, approximately 2,000 new law enforcement positions
10 will be required in Cameron, Hidalgo, Jim Hogg, Starr, Willacy, and 11 Zapata Counties; and

12 WHEREAS, In order to prepare for the law enforcement
13 challenges ahead, the City of Pharr, South Texas College, the Pharr
14 Police Department, and the Pharr-San Juan-Alamo Independent School
15 District have united to work for the development of a 16 state-of-the-art training complex, the proposed Regional Center
17 for Public Safety Excellence, in Hidalgo County; this complex will 18 benefit the entire region by launching innovative programs in 19 public safety and security, providing initial and continuing 20 education of law enforcement personnel in the Rio Grande Valley;
21 individuals will be able to attain basic peace officer
22 certification and credit toward an associate of applied science
23 degree, or to work toward a wide range of certificates, associate 24 degrees, and bachelor's degrees; and

1 WHEREAS, The City of Pharr has committed 40 acres for 2 construction of the center, which would be funded by local 3 community college bond proceeds; the RCPSE would be administered by 4 South Texas College in partnership with political subdivisions and 5 participating school districts in the Rio Grande Valley, and 6 through a memorandum of understanding with the city, the police
7 department, and the school district; currently, PSJA ISD offers
8 academic and workforce programs leading to certificates and degrees
9 in public safety and criminal justice; the Pharr Police Department
10 is licensed by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer 11 Standards and Education to offer a police academy, and the 12 department will ensure that RCPSE programs and course curricula
13 satisfy any TCLEOSE requirements for approved training providers;
14 and

15 WHEREAS, Establishment of a center for public safety 16 excellence received overwhelming support in the Texas house, which 17 passed House Bill 2883, 83rd Regular Session, with 145 aye votes;
18 and

19 WHEREAS, All those who are working on this important endeavor
20 are making a valuable and lasting contribution to public safety, 21 and it is most fitting to recognize them for their commitment to a
22 strong and safe Texas; now, therefore, be it

23 RESOLVED, That the 83rd Texas Legislature hereby commend the 24 City of Pharr, South Texas College, the Pharr Police Department, 25 and the Pharr-San Juan-Alamo Independent School District for their 26 outstanding collaborative efforts to develop the Regional Center 27 for Public Safety Excellence and to address the critical and
